THANKS TO ALL OUR AGENTS

LET'S HEAR FROM THEM!

I wanted to pursue Commercial Cookery and Blue Lotus is the perfect place for international students like me.

As an international student, I was worried I'll have a hard time connecting with everyone, but I now have many friends from all over the world.

The teachers and the rest of the staff are all very welcoming and friendly, they're happy to answer any questions and guide you throughout your course, there are heaps of activities in class to keep you engaged the whole time!

MEET OUR TRAINERS

NIXON - Cert III Commercial cookery

NIXON

I started working at Blue Lotus College since May, 2022. This is my first job as a Cert III Commercial Cookery Trainer and it has been a wonderful experience. I have been involved in hospitality industry for 9 years and now, I want to upskill myself by passing my skills and knowledge to my students.

Talking about my background in detail, I have worked as a chef almost for 7 years in Melbourne. Looking out for more opportunity and professional development I changed my career as a Trainer. Apart from being chef and trainer, I am also a graduate in IT as Business Analyst major which helps me to teach required computer skills to my student to perform well in their education.

Moreover, I like teaching and getting along with students learning fresh ideas from them and guide them to build up their career. Blue Lotus College has been a wonderful place to me as a trainer learning lot of things from the colleagues who are very friendly to each other.

He was then asked to start a Music Department in Shanghai Normal University. At the University, he started an orchestra and choir as well as establishing a classroom curriculum.

After two years at the University, Ken returned to his home town of Melbourne and has been teaching English here for five years.
